

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Gloria Schultz is a long-time and proud resident of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Gloria began her employment with the South Dakota Bureau of Administration's Central Duplicating office starting as a clerk typist and worked her way up to her current program administrator position; and,

Whereas, Through her knowledge, judgment, thoroughness and skills, Gloria has earned the respect of everyone she has dealt with, both within and outside her office, quickly being recognized as "the early bird" to work; and,

Whereas, Gloria is a dedicated wife to her husband, "Red", mother to son, Dennis, and stepdaughters, Paulette, Loretta and Kathryn, and grandmother to six grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Gloria spends her leisure time sewing and quilting and loves to go for walks; and,

Whereas, After 38 years of exemplary service to the state of South Dakota, Gloria will retire on October 7, 2005, with a open house planned at the Capitol Cafeteria on Wednesday, October 5, 2005; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 7, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join with Gloria's family, friends, and co-workers in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-sixth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
